

International Scientific Conference

Doctrinal texts – achievements, importance and future in the protection of heritage /90th anniversary of the Athens Charter/

12th edition in Florence, Italy

Florence (Italy), September 13-14, 2021
Auditorium al Duomo (via de' Cerretani 54/r)

Promoters:

In collaboration with:

Doctrinal texts – achievements, importance and future in the protection of heritage / 90th anniversary of the Athens Charter/

12th edition in Florence, Italy

Florence (Italy), September 13-14, 2021
Auditorium al Duomo (via de' Cerretani 54/r)

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

1st day: Monday 13th September 2021

h. 15.00: Introduction to the topics and goals of the conference

Paolo Del Bianco,
World Heritage for Building Peace

Bogusław Szmygin, Poland
Doctrinal texts – achievements, importance and future

h. 15.30: 1st Session: Contemporary conservation theory in the light of doctrinal documents – critical analysis of doctrinal texts

Ruxandra-Iulia Stoica, Romania/UK
Urban Conservation in International Charters: from the Athens Charter to the Historic Urban Landscape Recommendation

Rosa Anna Genovese, Italy
The Congress of Athens of 1931: Methodological and Technical Contributions for the Conservation of Architectural and Environmental Heritage

Calogero Bellanca, Italy
Doctrinal Texts: achievements, importance and future in the protection of heritage

Marc Laenen, Belgium
Challenges of heritage enhancement in the 21st century

Ave Paulus, Bénédicte Selfslagh, Bente Mathisen, Clara Arokiasamy, Gráinne Shaffrey, Laura Robinson, Neel Kamal Chapagain, ICOMOS Working Group
On the relevance of Human Rights Based Approach in doctrinal texts and practice of cultural heritage conservation.

h. 17.30: Discussion

2nd day: Tuesday 14th September 2021

h. 9.30: 2nd Session: The importance and role of doctrinal texts in conservation practice - implementation of doctrinal texts into practice

Nigel Walter, Great Britain

Conservation practice and the future of doctrinal texts

Claudine Houbart, Belgium

Learning from the Abode of Chaos: institutions, stakeholders and contemporary challenges of conservation doctrine

Camila Burgos Vargas, Spain

Significance assessment and interventions on architectural heritage

Ádám Arnóth, Hungary

All buildings matter; Ecological approach in conservation-restoration - awarded examples in Hungary

h. 11.00: Discussion

h. 14.00: 3rd Session: Development of doctrinal texts – needs and proposals of new doctrinal texts

Bénédicte Selfslagh, Belgium

The 'soft power' of ICOMOS' doctrinal texts

Kamil Zeidler, Aleksandra Guss, Poland

Soft Law in Cultural Heritage Protection and Conservation: from the Athens Charter through the Venice Charter to the Future

Celia Martínez Yáñez, Spain

ICOMOS International Cultural Tourism Charters 1976-2021: evolution, contributions and trends towards heritage protection.

Donatella Biagi Maino, Massimo Carcione, Giuseppe Maino, Italy/USA

A "Bologna Manual" for the Safeguard of Cultural Heritage at Risk

Andrew Sneddon, Australia

Defining our role or losing our way? The application of fundamental conservation principles within an Indigenous context in Australian

at the conclusion a voice will be given to:

Dumitru Rusu, Romania

SOC Heritage Map

h. 16.00: Final Discussion

h. 17.00: ISC Theory Triennial Meeting (members only)